

Addendum D

PERSONAL INSIGNIA, CANCELLING PERFORATIONS AND PUNCHES

This section is commonly referred to as Back of the Book (BOB) perfins. By definition the following are not perfins. Much of the work done in this addendum was completed by Mark Fennell.

PERSONAL INSIGNIA

Personal insignia at first glance would appear to be another perfin. However the perforation's primary function is not identification for postal security purposes. Also noteworthy, all are relatively modern creations.

A novelty creation by David G. Hannay of Kincardine ON using the top of the "P" from a PAID perforator.

Stamp dealer F. E. Eaton and Sons of Vancouver BC. The inconsistent use of this perforator is considered personal.

John Reid of Lantzville BC used this perforator in the 1970s in conjunction with a stamp exchange service which he ran.

Latin America Philatelic Society. The society secretary, Piet Steen of Hinton AB, used this personal perfin on society mail in the 1980s & 1990s.

The "Lighthouse" perfin was created for use at VALPEX, stamp exhibition sponsored by the Virginia Philatelic Association.

Used by John Lyding, of the USA, between 1985 & 2003 on ship mail and is reported by the Catalog of United States Perfins as personal.

COMPEX Stamp Show is the annual exhibition of the Combined Philatelic Exhibition of Chicagoland. Used on stamps 418, 419, 420, 425 & 425

Found on the NL 1935 King George V Silver Jubilee Issue.

Found on NL 168 & 212

PAID CANCELS

A cancelling device of various sizes and type styles (with 4, 5, 6 and 7-hole patterns) used by Canadian banks to indicate that cheques, drafts etc. had been paid. During the period that these items were subject to an excise tax, which could be paid by affixing revenue or postage stamps to the document, the PAID sometimes perforated the stamp, which was accidental and not intentional.

Unknown user – Found on Quebec Registration stamps QR5, QR10 and QR11.

The user was "Honey, Longpre & Cherrier" Clerks of the County Court and Registrars of the Supreme Court in Quebec. Found on QL16, QL17, QL24, QL34, QL37, QL42, QL51 and QL53.

Found on NL Queen Victoria 1898, 1907 King Edward VII, King George V 1910 and 1938 Caribou Issue Inland Revenue Stamps.

MISCELLANEOUS PERFORATED CANCELS

See an interesting article in "Canadian Revenues, Volume 6, Ontario and Quebec, on electronic CD or DVD by Edward Zaluski.. This cancel is found on 1871-90 Quebec Law Stamps in various stamp perforations e.g. 11½ x 12 and 12. Note the missing pin in the "1".

Luxury Tax cancelling perforators were issued, starting in mid-1920 by the Department of National Revenue to merchants to cancel stamps, on invoices, which represented the amount of Luxury Tax imposed on certain items. An informative study on the subject was made by Christopher D. Ryan in the Canadian Revenue Study Group's newsletter #20 (Feb 1998) and #26 (May 1999). Found on various King George V Admiral postal issues as well as on War Tax, Excise Tax, Electric Light Inspection, Ontario Stock Transfer stamps and on Ontario and Yukon Law stamps. Also found on Quebec Prohibition stamps QP3.

Snowflake or Geometric design. Found on 1898 Queen Victoria issue of Inland Revenue stamps of Newfoundland. Seen on 5¢, 10¢, 25¢, 50¢, 75¢ & $1, known as NFR1 to 6.

Kodak Film (Toronto, Vancouver and elsewhere) identification either alpha-numeric or just numeric in nature. Used on incoming packages of film for development as identification. That the perforation came in contact with a stamp was incidental. Found on a variety of Canadian postage stamps.

Similar to Kodak but with larger holes and more spacing. User and purpose unknown but we think part of date.

Some cancelling devices had 2 lines, the top one PAID and the second the day, month and year. This is thought to be December 22, and is on a Canada Bill stamp FB49.

Found on a Canadian Revenue Excise stamp. Uses and purpose unknown but could be date.
